APPLICATION FOR OIL AND GAS LEASE

Note to Applicant: The Washington State Department of Natural Resources periodically holds auctions for oil and gas leases on State-owned lands. Parcels for auction may be nominated by an individual or offered by the State. A nonrefundable application fee of $25.00 and a bid deposit of $150.00 must accompany the application.

The maximum acreage per application is 640 acres or one government section; acreage from one township can be combined to obtain the maximum. Marine and estuarine aquatic lands managed by the Department of Natural Resources are currently withheld from lease for oil and gas.

The Department's consideration of the application includes an administrative review to determine any impact the request may have on the management of the lands involved, and to ensure that the request is in accordance with the public lands statutes of the State of Washington. Other agency lands are reviewed by that agency for approval.
